

The Spirit Realm

Part 2

Why The Spirit Realm?

The realm of the Spirit is literally where Spirits dwell and operate; all things we do on earth—as seen in the bible verses, even to sin, we need help from the Spirit realm. To do righteousness, you need help from the Spirit realm—as I've shown you previously, the two Spirits that are dominating on earth now—the two heads of the Spirit is the Holy Spirit and the Spirit of the antichrist.

- The minute Jesus showed up, there had to be a Spirit that anti Him—then undoes what He had done; and so, the presence of the Holy Spirit is restraining the antichrist from fully exhibiting Himself.
- So, when we see in the New Testament in the Book of Revelations that the antichrist is here in person—no, no, no, the Spirit of the antichrist has already been here. It's just that it chooses a person to go into and that person is released but that means that the person's Spirit of God is withdrawn.
- Again, the dynamic of the Spirit Realm it is a righteousness against an unrighteousness, it is a binary thing where there is one side against the other; so, if you're gonna come into the realm of the Spirit and do anything, just know that you have to choose a side.

- Because the side that lets you in, determines what you end up becoming and doing—you can't be let in the realm of the Spirit by demonic forces, and you say you're serving God in the realm of the Spirit.
- If the Spirit of God lets you in, you are against the other side because the way information such as coding is given to you, determines what manifests, (alright?). Witchcraft is just using the codes without permission to manifest things into existence that was never what God wanted into existence.
- It is a counter, everything that manifests out of the coding without God, dies. That's why Solomon says that "everything is vanity; everything is vanity upon vanity and the only thing that is not vanity is the service of the Lord." In fact, the bible says everything passes away except love; only love—because God is love.

So, why we love?

Is we're passing the pieces of God to each other that lasts forever—and that's also what it means to be made in the image of God and after His likeness.

- So, we've been talking about the realm of the Spirit in that capacity; in the first week I showed you about the value of a woman in the realm of the Spirit—which is just one aspect; my goal is to take us into the realm of the Spirit to the extent that we would know what it means to be Christian—in the realms of the Spirit.
- One of the reasons why is that when I'm talking to Christians in counseling or mentoring, one of the things I've noticed is that we use terminologies out of context because we don't understand what's going on in the realm of the Spirit.
- Someone just taught us that you love, you give, you forgive, you obey, you're disciplined, you're humble—God chastises those He love, but then if I ask you to tell me how it looks like in the realm of the Spirit in order, people would not tell me—they just know that you're supposed to do things but we don't know the WHY because you haven't been there.
- You haven't been dwelling in the realm of the Spirit to understand that everything we are prophesizing or saying in the realms of the flesh, has an order by which it needs to exist in the realm of the Spirit.
- Today, I will tell you why when you say, "in the name of Jesus come out or Satan leave," I want to tell you why it even works in the first place. I will even tell you why it is when you say, "in the name of Jesus come out or Satan leave," I won't even tell you why it works in the first place.
- And how a person that is playing around in Christianity can come with that same name and the Devil like the sons of Skevas did (what?) that one demon turned and whipped seven men—grown men; the Bible says they ran out of that place (what?) naked.
- How can I use the name of Jesus and a demon beats me? That has to do with a person actually utilizing that name. Because there's something that is inside of you that needs to be there first before that name actually works for you. (Are we together?)

- So, there are some things that I need to tell you and that's how the realm of the Spirit works; not just the realm of the Spirit but I need you to understand that in everything, there is an initiation and a hazing. (Are we together?)
- I learned about initiation/hazing for the first time while in college and while having dinner with a friend from high school; while having dinner her phone always rang at 7PM and it was always like midmeal; she would take her phone, drop it and go, "you know what, I'll be right back?"
- That's it, gone. She did it like for five, six days—I was like, "she's in trouble, she's getting pimped out—something! I was like that when I was a kid—I honestly was thinking that!
- I was like, "somebody's doing something, she's gotta keep up to something, I'm going to help her." I went berserk, found out she broke code by telling me what she was doing; she was (what?) she was pledging.
- So, there was this whole hazing part of things, (right?) and then I night I came out (right?) they were running up and down the hill, back and forth; and all this was going on; so I went back to another one; I was walking around the courtyard at like 10PM and then I see a bunch of people standing there and being who I am, I was like, "oh Jesus, something's wrong."
- So, I went there, and I see men, in boots (right?) with like tight pants and potato sacks over on them (over their head) and they had like a wolf, mask; and they stood there—not moving, (right?) and everybody was just staring at them.
- And a guy comes with a stick and does something like this (Marching) and then he lifts it and shouts and then they howled at the moon, and then they started running into each other—like violently and then they howled and then they broke out like (stomping); I said, "ah, that's good."
- (Alright) so, I was like, "something's really going on" and then I found out, there was an initiation phase! Now, social scientists will tell you, that any group worth joining, or a group that lasts the longest, or an organization that lasts forever—literally, has to cost you something or you'll never stay in it,
- (Did you hear me?). The organizations that stay the longest are not the ones that are okay with anybody coming in and just being themselves—in fact, the organizations that stay the longest, has an initiation and then a hazing period that candidates go through it—by which there has to be dues by which you pay for with your life service, work, or even finances.
- For anything to last long, you have to feel a part of it, it can't be free, or you would never cherish it. (Did you hear me?). That principle is beyond just fraternities and sororities; that literally is how the Spirit realm also works; in fact, that idea comes from the realm of the Spirit.
- Nothing is free, in other words, in the realm of the Spirit; everything that happens in the realm of the Spirit—whichever side that you choose, there is an initiation and a hazing period.

So, why do we haze?

One of the reasons why we do the whole initiation (right?) and there's a hazing period where you choose to join, and then there's a process of breaking you down, it is to develop the discipline and loyalty within the group.

- If you are choosing to join an organization and you're not discipline or loyal to the group; in other words, you come in with this autocratic attitude of, "I am going to be me in this system," then you're going to get kicked out really quickly.
- There's no organization worth its salt that would like anybody to join and then try to exert himself from day one. You got to win the right to be there and be seen as a leader within the organization, (are you with me?).
- So, one of the reasons why there has to be an initiation and hazing is because you have to be disciplined enough to be within the group and to be accepted. That's why, initiation and hazing engender conformity within a social group.
- Any group, whether in the realm of the Spirit or here on earth that you're going to join in, (right?), you got to conform to it. This is why one of the things the Bible says, "be it not conform onto this world but be it transformed, (how?) by the renewing of your mind (why?), because if you're going to be worldly, you'll have to conform to the world;
- If you're going to be Christianly, you got to conform to (who?) God. But in order to conform to any side, it's an initiation and a hazing period. (Alright?).
- I mentioned a book by Rebecca Brown; that book talks about discipline even of the people on the other side; people that do witchcraft, people that are aware of the realm of the Spirit are definitely more disciplined than us.
- In fact, let me give you an example: There's a man who called himself a grandmaster—they have levels too, not all demons are made alike. They have levels. One of them that was the highest level that Jesus ended up meddling up and He came up—because literally like Paul, he went to go kill Christians, Jesus appeared.
- It gets to the level where Jesus is like, "enough is enough." He once said when he was writing—I think his name is Billy Akani—he said, "I wanted to see the devil for myself because when I went through the rank, I was not allowed to even see or be in the presence of the devil, he was too great for us to even see him.
- So, the devil said he wanted a meeting with Billy and declared a fasting—

You know how many days?

Just to see the devil, he had to fast a whole year just to see the devil! The same guy that has been messing with you, to see him and fellowship with him to get instructions and power, you had to fast for one year.

- No eating: and you had to pray for a year—in whatever prayer language they had. Oh, you thought it was easy, (huh?) like he was available too. No, he's the one that actually brings the reports in the Book of Job before God in the realms of the Spirit.

- He's the ruler of the prince of the air and then there's the prince of the air and his minions that do all the dirty jobs that bother you; he's actually on another level for them as well. (Alright?).
- So, the reason for initiation and hazing is because literally you're being broken down to be disciplined and loyal. It doesn't matter which side you choose, or which organization you choose, there will be an initiation and hazing a period.
- In fact, let's look at about three of the ways in the realm of the Spirit—regardless of which side, initiations do take place and I'll show you in the Bible verses to actually go along with this.

Let's talk about it...

Some of the covenants, that also show up in movies now—such as the series “Vikings,” and other similar movies where there's a lot of sacrifice it there (know why?), because that's how you worship the gods.

- Spirits are blood thirsty; remember when I told you about blood; remember when Cain killed Abel, the Bible says (what?) his blood was still crying on the ground.
- Why do we “plead the blood of Jesus, why did the Bible say, “we're not allowed to eat blood?” because life is in the BLOOD, (why?) because blood in the realm of the Spirit carries life in it and a meaning that changes codes in the realm of the Spirit.
- Foreign gods such as the Spirits in Africa are blood thirsty and there are still human sacrifices to this day!
- Even in the Bible there are stories of how people were trying to please God, they did (what?) killed their children.
- So, the African gods don't require chickens or cows as a sacrifice; as I am talking to you, there are families that every morning the Spirit requires a female buried alive.
- So, when I hear the musicians talking about, “let's go back to Africa, this Christian is for them white folks!
- “Listen, you go back, and we'll start with your kids; when we run out, we'll go to their cousins and when you're finally done, let me know.”
- I don't know if you're watching Nigerian elections, witches are coming out to vote! They're coming to sacrifice chickens and other instruments as a sacrifice at the polling booth!
- There are dead bodies just showing up everywhere—headless—and this is not news, this is what we're seeing right now!
- To be initiated has a blood covenant; it's through either shaking—meaning you prick your hand, I prick my hand we do a blood shake, or if you're watching Vikings—they're always slitting their wrists and they're either shaking on it, spitting on it, or there actually is a sacrifice.
- So, there always is a blood covenant (right?). Now, there is confession; another way to be initiated in the realm of the Spirit is whenever a spirit comes to you or a group comes to you, you must confess that (what?) you have now given your life to that organization. (Alright?)

- You've got to confess it and you're selling your soul—that's why you hear people say, "I sold my soul to the devil," (right?); that just means that you have been initiated into the convents of wickedness.
- And it's eternal; once you've sold your soul, it is it, unless the Lord helps you. One of the hardest covenants to break are blood covenants; and blood covenants which usually comes with a sexual aspect as well, but blood covenants are very difficult because, it changes the meaning of your existence in the realm of the spirit.
- So, you got to confess it; another one is intimacy/sex, function as one. So, when I was in high school (right?), and one day this girl came and sat next to me; she was a beautiful Hispanic young lady, and she was so happy on that day.
- She was like, "I'm getting jumped in, I'm getting jumped into a gang!" I was like, congratulations—what does that entail? So, I was thinking it was like the Crips—because I've seen it before, I went to Crenshaw high(right?).
- Usually, in the bathroom at lunch you get jumped between one and two—you know, you make an appointment for the jumping (you know?); you go into the bathroom innocent, and you come out, "what's happening blood?" That's what happens!
- Now, I thought that's what she meant by jumped in. So, I was like, "how is it, are you ready—you like put on deodorant and stuff?"
- And she was like, "no, not that jumped in, I have to sleep with all the male members of the group." On that day! (Yes).
- The men get beat up, but the girls had to sleep with all the males; now you would say, why? Because you can't build a community where all of you don't have something equal, in order.
- And so, your value had to be shared equally amongst the men. In other words, blood covenant, confessions, and there has to be a functionality as one.
- No organization can live and function if it doesn't stay as one unit; have all things in common. They have to have all things in common.
- In other words, there has to be a oneness to it and so the realm of the spirit does it through intimacy.
- Cause if you've slept with a witch, you are a witch. (Why?) because the Bible says, that literally when the Bible talks about sleeping with the harlot, how can you take the temple of the Holy Spirit and adjourn it with a prostitute and basically think that the Holy Spirit can adjourn?
- You can't because you become one Spirit with whatever you sleep with. Let's say you're a virgin and the person you slept with has slept with 50 people, that means that you just slept with 51. The spirit of all 51 is now in you.

This is the problem...

For some reason Christians are one of the only people I've realized that we don't understand that there's an initiation and a hazing period in Christianity; it's like we don't get it! Even in Christianity there's initiation, there has to be let me show you.

John 6:56

⁵⁶Jesus says, "He who eats My flesh and drinks My blood abides in Me, and I in him." That's initiation.

- When you're drinking blood and eating flesh—this is by the way what the Pharisees heard and they were like, "cannable? kill Him" no, no, no, kill him now! (Right?); this is the problem because Jesus used to say things like this and not explain it.
- He'd just be like, oh eat my flesh and drink my blood and then you got like 5,000 people go "yeah, yeah!" (Right?) literally.
- But we've come to understand that in His death and resurrection, man must live by bread alone but by ever word that comes out of the mouth of God; the flesh of God literally is His body.
- Now, if you're a part of the Thursday Bible study, you'll realize that we're talking about Exodus and we're talking about the lamb; (what did they need to do with the lamb?) they needed to eat it. (Right?)
- In partaking in Who Jesus is, you're intaking Who He is as a person; when you're taking the word of God, when you're take in Who He says He is, you're eating His flesh.
- That's why when we're doing the Holy Communion, we're eating the bread. And when you're drinking His blood—meaning the life that He has, when you drink someone's blood, that means that their life is now yours—because you had to kill them first!
- So, it's like you're taking their destiny, their purpose, their image their personality; everything! So, that's why unless you eat the flesh and drink the blood, He abides in Me and I can't be in you; the only way you can prove to me that Jesus is in you is if you are partaking in eating His word and drinking of His life. Constantly.
- Without it, He's not in you—meaning you have not been initiated by blood. (We're together?)
- I think we've sanitized Christianity based on how we wrote it, we didn't know that there was an initiation process as well. Another verse—and this is why based on the initiation of blood Paul says,

Galatians 2:20

²⁰" I have been crucified with Christ; (meaning) it is no longer I who live, (when I eat His flesh and drink His blood, I lose my identity—what I eat of Him is now my identity). but Christ lives in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the son of God, who loved me and have Himself for me.

Therefore, I no longer live—so, blood covenant does away with you purpose, your identity, your face and then you become Jesus.

- Like Christ with the mind of Christ (why?) because Christ lives in (where?) me. And the life which I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself for me; for I've been crucified with Christ; it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me.
- In other words, the life I live now is by faith in the Son of God; so, everything I do, in person, everything I do, I try to do it as Christ lives in me. Meaning, those that come after me must first (do what?) deny themselves, pick up their cross and follow me.
- I lose my image, pick up the image of Christ; that means every encounter I have, it should be a type of encounter Jesus would have had. Everyone!
- Initiation/hazing; why do fraternities wear sags, wear the wolves face and go through such humiliating rituals? Because it was no longer about them and their pride, and their ego, it was about what the community wanted them to do that they did.
- It was no longer "my" identity or me separated where I've made my own decisions; in other words, this organization determines my decisions for me.
- In Christianity, the blood covenant does the exact same thing; it is no longer you who live, but Christ that lives in you.

And how do we get that?

Eat My flesh and drink My blood. (We're together?). Initiation, confessing, selling your soul...

Romans 10:9

⁹If you (what?) confess with your mouth that the Lord Jesus and believe in your heart that God has raised Him from the dead, you will be (what?) saved.

- Unless you (what?), confess it; listen to the words, usually say (what?)
 "Jesus, I confess my sins (right?), I confess that you're Lord, come into my life," (why are you asking Him into your life?)
 You're not asking Jesus to come into your life and just sit there; (what are you asking Him to do?). Takeover. (Why?) because you don't have an identity anymore.

Whose identity do you live by?

His. Christianity is a hazing period that breaks you to build you again; but the new built you, looks like Jesus and not like your old self.

- This is a process you have to go through before you can utter "Jesus is my Lord." Unless you confess, so much so that I want you to see why it is a selling of your soul to Jesus—why is it, (right?), because He said,

1 Corinthians 6:20 (Initiation)

²⁰For you were bought at a price (it wasn't free, who had the rights over your life?), Satan. You handed it to him through Adam—he did it for you. He literally took the earth and (what?), handed it to Satan.

- Jesus couldn't just come and take it back without a price, (what was the price?), His self; death. So, that means He bought the rights of Satan and now it is His; so, when you say, "Jesus be my Lord," you are now paying allegiance to the One that has rights over you.
- For you were bought at a price; therefore, glorify God in your body and in your spirit, which are (what?), God's. Belongs to God.

Can you see what this verse is doing?

It's not an option or an opinion; it's saying you owe Him your body and your spirit which already belongs to Him anyway.

- So, it's like this idea that I'm struggling with the will of God, you always struggle when you have another opinion to what He has. That's the only time you struggle!
- When you have an opinion that is different from what He has told you to do. The minute you've done that, what you're saying is, "I still have the rights over me, I'm just giving you permission to do some things in my life."
- That's not Christianity, Christianity is "you bought, I give body and spirit, which was Yours to begin with."
- Christianity is that period of getting—this is why initially when you come into the faith, you just feel like, "why is this happening to me, why is this hard?" (Right?), its until you build stamina, and you just realize like Solomon you're like, "vanity upon vanity, all things are vanity, I might as well just live my life for God" and that's apparently it.
- Because if the Spirit of God is in you, He kind of doesn't let you do nothing, (huh?). So, the next thing is intimacy and there is hazing. Sex/Intimacy/Function as one.

John 17:21-22:

²¹(Jesus was the one praying here), that all of them may be one, Father, just as You, Father, are in Me and I in You; that they may also be one in Us, that the world may believe that You sent Me.

- The power in the realm of the spirit to accomplish the purpose of the group requires unity. (Listen to me), if you want to destroy a church, let me give you the secret so that if I see it, I'll kick you out!
- The first secret to allowing a church to die is to break its unity; the minute one-person's spirit of dissention starts to gossip; the job of the pastor is to mess up that gossip immediately.
- Like in the book of Revelations, the one church that was entertaining the spirit of Jezebel, (what did the Lord say?), "if you don't get her out right now, I'm coming to take your candle away—you're no longer a church."
- I know that you have a name, but you are dead. In another church, Paul was the one counseling and he was like, wait, wait do you know that eleven messes of the whole bread?

- The first way to destroy a church from fulfilling its purpose, is to start back-biting; the minute you feel the need to backbite, (I'm telling you now), Satan has appointed you to break your church.
- The minute it hurts you that something happened, and you don't deal with it through the proper channels, Satan has appointed you as the seed that needs to be removed, or you break everything else down.
- The tower of Babel, (what did God say?), "if I don't confuse them, nothing will be impossible with them."
- God Himself, had to change people's language or they were going to be able to build a tower of worship; not to heaven, but they would have deified it, demons would have taught them many things.
- So, to save their lives, He breaks their unity. This is why before the Holy Spirit came, (what do you hear in the Bible?), they were in the upper room (how?), in one accord.
- For the Spirit of God to move anywhere, the people must be of the same mind; not broken. "That all of them may be one, Father, just as you are in Me and I am in you. May the also be in us so that the world may believe that You sent Me." (Amen?)
- So, therefore I just showed you in Christianity for it to even work;

Why does Christianity seem so powerless right now?

We've never been more divided in history than right now—never been this divided. Doctrines that shouldn't divide us have messed us up; Satan has found his way into the church to even create doctrine that just come out of nowhere.

- All of the sudden Jesus has a younger brother; no, it's a real thing—like Jesus now has a younger brother. Or, that you can't call Jesus with an English name; you got to use His original name.
- I don't care what you call Him, as long as we're talking about the same person, that name is going to work.
- In Hausa it's Yahshua, in Karaka ye is Dade, in English it's Jesus, in Hebrew it's Yeshua, it's the same person; if I said it in my language, demons would flee. In Spanish it's Jesus, (Right?).
- It still works by the way; If I have to create a doctrine to go back to it, I'm going back to the Law; that's even more antithetical to the name of Jesus.
- (Alight?), so, we're altogether? There's an initiation phase in Christianity; how many of us have gone through it based on rhetorical? You've got to go through it!
- This is why, yes, it does feel hard—because it breaks you first. Every organization will break you first; if it's worth joining, you're willing to pay the price.
- Being a Satanist is not free either; no, it's not. At the age of 15 or 16 when I was in high school in a French class, there were these girls sitting across my table who said they were witches

- They were telling me how they became witches, it was simple, through Ouija boards—the games. They were like, “we took Ouija boards to the next level,” and another person that does Ouija boards told us how to transport ourselves out of our body.
- And they were actually demonstrating it to me in class! And you know what’s funny, I’ve already heard it before and you know why, cause I’m from Nigeria.
- If you’ve gone to boarding school, there’s actually, literally a time where the headmaster comes into your rooms and if they found you laying down straight, they needed to turn you over.
- Because you died when they turned you over because that means that you were a witch. When you slept straight (and they told us in class)—and I’ve already heard it and it’s true, like people would actually be there in their body and in the morning, they would tell what they were doing in the neighbor’s house.
- And then the neighbor would actually tell you that’s what they did. They were talking about these things and that’s when the Spirit of God hit me, and I started quoting scriptures.
- They said, “Bullus stop, stop,” French class was weird that day—it was not French we were talking, we were speaking in tongues; I got an A in that class, (right?).
- It’s because there are many ways that all of this happens (John 17:21-22), even being a witch is not free; you got to learn things, you got to be devoted and these witches were devoted—they were young!
- They were like my age mates; beautiful people—transporting themselves from one area to the other. But if they didn’t come back to their body when the demon said come back to your body, that was it, you died!
- I’m telling you these because you need to understand there is a whole spirit realm out here; we get so carried away by our school, our job, our friends, our hangout; YouTube, Insta Gram; it’s like we get so carried away that we forget there’s a whole realm we’re battling.
- This is why some of you will call me, “why does God keep waking me up at 3am?” First of all, prayer too requires a sacrifice—when it’s too convenient, remember what David said, “I can’t offer God what doesn’t cost me anything.”
- I’m speaking to those who love comfortability; those of us that see me pray at 6am (right?), they think that I have a mental issue! I’m sweating alone in the bathroom—all I know is while y’all were sleeping, I just know that my prayer was heard; that’s all I care about!
- I may just be asking the Lord to help me pay for my cellphone bill—I don’t care, if it don’t pinch me, I’m not offering it; I’m not!
- God is too good for my comfortable mindset! People always ask, “why can’t we say some of these things in America?” Nothing’s wrong with America, absolutely not; it’s just that America is very efficient in creating distractions.
- We’re very efficient at it; but it’s a good thing. Because that means you, in America, have more cost to bear to enter the realm of the spirit.
- That means as Americans we can show God, we love Him more than any other place. It’s actually a blessing in disguise.

- The atmosphere was thick; I went to the East Coast, I pray easy; the minute my plane landed at LAX, the turbulents even hit! I said, “Father, we have entered.”
- Like literally in the realm of the spirit, when you’re hitting LA, LA feels different in the realm, it feels thick.
- I went to Maryland; like I landed in Nigeria and I told my friends when I went; as I landed, I was speaking in the realm of the spirit, I could almost call your name and tell you what you did!
- Here! “Father I can’t see myself, what is happening, Father.” Like we’re praying—six hours straight, just to hear something!
- Literally, before I have a dream with the that answers what I want, I have to pray two hours here. In Nigeria I’m awake and I’m looking at you like, “ah sista listen oh, this is what you did yesterday,” it’s like, it comes easy, atmosphere is clean.
- Demons in Africa don’t disguise in movies, it’s either they show up, or they’re not there; like you don’t have to wonder if it’s a demon—no, no, no, like they show up and the tell you; like oh, “we were sent by, demon of the headquarter of this region.”
- How are you? And you respond, “I’m fine.” Like, in Africa you don’t have to worry, like, “oh was that a demon?” No, no, no, they come knocking asking, “how are you, will you be feeding us today?” You say no and they’ll go.
- Here, in the United States, you’re watching a moving, “was that demonic, did that guy just say Satan?”
- Like, my brother does music (Right?), and one time he literally showed me when he messed with the reverb—like slowed it down and turned it in the other direction; it was like a subliminal message in the beating!
- And he was like, “see what I’m telling you?” my brother’s deep in the music industry (Right?), he works at one of these major record labels.
- He was like, “no, there’s messages everywhere, you just don’t hear it” but your brain picks it up by the way! I was like, “wow” they don’t hide; it depends on where you want to live.
- So, now, if you have gone through the blood covenant, if you have gone through the confession, if you have gone through the function as one, the intimacy, the unity, (Right?), with the body of Christ and with God.
- The only reason why I said sex is because of how it works in the realm of the spirit; I mean, witches would tell you; when I was doing my doctorate (Right?), a part of my doctorate was in philosophy and religion, political science, and college of religion and all of that.
- So, in one of my classes I had some people who claimed that they had certification of being a white witch (Right?), so, you can ask them questions, they don’t do wickedness, they do “good as witches.”
- So, you ask them questions and they would tell you what is the fastest way to actually like get into person spirit into their lives? It’s through sex!
- How do you bring a pastor down the fastest? Make him cheat. You’ve finished his ministry, his entire calling the day he joins himself with anyone other than his wife or her husband.

- If you're wondering why the pastors always falling—it's the fastest way to destroy us, promiscuity; when they tell you don't touch it before you marry—you touch it, it's your fault!
- Alright, that's why, because it's the fastest way to destroy you. So, in other words, all of the sudden, if you went through blood covenant, the confession, the sex, the intimacy; I want you to understand that as a Christian, that's when there's a change in the realm of the spirit.
- I want to show you what happens and how the Bible describes you as a Christian. So much so that why God gets annoyed when you walk through anxiety, when you walk through fear, when you refuse to—what Paul says, “give up those things that easily beseeches you.”
- When you don't know who you are to God, you claim to be a Christian who has gone through the blood covenant—“eat my flesh, drink my blood,” you profess that you have already confessed that Jesus is my Lord, and you believe that you are one with God and “I am heading to heaven, you are a Christian, I believe in the Lord Jesus Christ, (Right?)—but then you don't understand stuff like this—let me tell the things of the flesh does not determine what is going on in the realm of the spirit—the realm of the spirit determines what we do.

You understand that?

If you are a Christian; now I'm about to show you what happens when you've gone through the initiation and the hazing. I want to tell you where you are right now as we're sitting here:

- (Did you get that?). I want to tell you where you actually are as we're sitting here so that you're not ignorant or why when you speak—you remember when the Bible says, “life and death is in the power of (what?), ‘the mind’ (why?), who gave you such power? God.
- Yeah, but also as a Christian, confess out of your mouth you give it life. That's actually because and some of us talk carelessly; we live carelessly; for example, when the Bible says, when you hate somebody, the Bible says that's equivalent to (what?), “murder.”
- In the realm of the spirit, you're name that's on your forehead when you hate somebody is murderer; the realm of the spirit treats you like a murderer, (did you hear me?). Another one, if a man looks at another woman lustfully, he's already done (what?), “adultery.”
- He's already committed it. Walking around looking at her lustfully, in the realm of the spirit you've are now labeled as (what?), adulterer.
- The realm of the spirit responds to you—even when you pray as adulterer. Some of us don't know why our prayers are not being answered; and then we think like, “no, I've been good.” No, no, no, what you do, (Right?), has spiritual value; because you are incanting things in the physical that has different meanings in the realm of the spirit.
- When you lie, in the Bible it says one of the sins that literally categorizes different is (what?), no liar shall (what?), inherit the Kingdom of God.
- When you lie, you create new existences into reality that speaks against you in the realm of the spirit.

- So, that when God and devils look at you; book of Revelations, the devil is where before God accusing the brethren (when?), day and night; (why?), how does he find what it is to accuse you?
- When you live contrary to what God says, Satan's standing there giving a report about you in the realm of the spirit. Based on that report is how the Kingdom of heaven and on earth responds to you.
- Some of us just don't get why our prayers are not being answered! It is because you don't know who you are; you're a spiritual being, giving spiritual life to things that should have never come alive—that is evidence against you in the realm of the spirit.
- So, then, this is why:

John 1:12

¹²But as many received Him (How do you receive Him? Through initiation and the covenant of blood, through the confession and intimacy with Him), to those that have received Him to them He gave (what?), the right; the minute you join the club and they let you in, (what does that mean?), you've been given some rights you never had before.

- Being a Christian give you some rights in the realm of the spirit; because remember, it is no longer you that lives but (who?), Christ that lives in you.
- So, that means the rights that Christ has, actually you have. Now you get why you are co-heirs with Christ?
- He gave the right to be called—so, if you are walking around like you don't know the rights you got, Satan will make sure he got you before you use those rights!
- That's how Satan has put Christians in bondage.

Why does he attack Christians more?

Because the minute you know your rights, he's in trouble; (so, what does he need to do?) make sure you don't know your rights.

- You've been given the right— "I have the right" to be called children (why am I a child all of the sudden?), because it is no longer I that live (but who?), Christ that lives—if Christ is His only begotten Son and now, He is my identity, that means that I'm in Christ and He's in me, I am the child of God.
- I have a right to be—so whatever happens to Jesus, can happen to me; whatever can't happen to Jesus, cannot happen to me. (Did you hear me?),
- If it can happen to Jesus—this is why He says, "if they crucify me" then (what?), they crucify you."
- But if I was raised from the dead, you shall also be "raised from the dead."

Can Jesus be demonically possessed?

No. He gave the right to become the children of God, to those who believe in His name—believing is the initiation process.

- If you really believe, you will go through it. A lot of us are still stuck twenty years after the initiation phase; “eat my word drink my blood” no, no, only on Mondays and Tuesdays when I don’t have to go to work!
- Be not ashamed of the Gospel—we’re ashamed. Half of the time. We’re still in the initiation phase at that point.
- “Confess and obey;” give me your souls, sell me your soul—I’ve already bought it! As long as it doesn’t touch a, b, c, and d, I am yours.
- Initiation phase asks for everything all at once. If you really want to be a part of it, there’s a cost all at once—for those that believe in His name.
- Now, you have been given rights (Right?), watch this,

Ephesians 2:6-7

⁶And God raised us up with Christ and seated us up (the minute you’ve gone through the initiation?), God raised us up with (who?), Christ, don’t read the rest, look at me:

- When Christ died and you went through the initiation phase, the death, you were considered a part of that death now. When you go through the initiation phase, you are now considered imputed back in time—into it says, when Jesus died on the cross, (guess who died with Him?), you did.
- But then, that means also when Jesus rose from the dead, (who rose?), you did. And God raised us up with Christ and seated us with him in heavenly realms in Christ Jesus.

Where’s Jesus seated at right now?

At the right-hand side of the Father. (Where are you?), at the right-hand side of the Father.

- Every time the Father gleans to the right, He sees you—as long as He sees His son. You’re here feeling powerless and weak; God sees more than a conqueror.
- Can you now see why it annoys Him, when that fear kicks in? When that anxiety kicks in and you’re over here, “I’m human... I am weak.”
- And He’s like, “no.” By His strife’s, you were made whole. You’ve been purchased, redeemed by the blood of the Lamb; this is why every time you call up with complain and not prayer, or lamentations or petitions, instead of Him to hear you and answer you, He responds with questions back at you.
- Now you know why in the book of Job, when Job came up complaining, (how did God respond?), when Job says, “curse the day of my birth, why was I even born, what is happening to me?” what did God do next? He didn’t say, “son, come here, I got you, I know you’re feeling broken,” no, He even asked the question, “who is this talking to me with no understanding—who is this?”
- Guard yourself as a man and come into My presence—if you have something to say, come say it to my face—that’s what He means.

- When Job came in, (what did He do next?), He started asking him questions, “where were you when I laid the foundation of the earth?” that you now have the audacity to curse the day you were born!
- He don’t answer you when you are complaining; He’s talking back! Go read your Bible. When the Israelites complained, (what did He do?), sometimes He opened the ground and buried them alive!
- He said, go complain down there! Read it—are we reading the same Bible? That’s what He did; He does hear the prayer of His children but complaining of how the pain is already destroyed is looking back and God is saying the blood did not work.
- That’s what He heard you say when you’re complaining. The blood didn’t work—I don’t feel like a child; you left me down here on my own!
- (Guess what He has to do?), He has to come back and defend Himself, “where were you?” Where were you? By the way, this is that verse some of us take out of context; “have you commanded the morning?” That is not saying that there is a commanding of the morning, it was in the asking of questions, He says, “have you, did you” and told the dawn when to come up—meaning you don’t have the power, it’s Me that commands the morning.
- And that’s when Job was like, “I am sorry, now that you have shown me how great You are, I am sorry that I complained.”
- And it was after, he apologized and all of that! That’s where my son’s name comes from—Elihu, Elihu is a random guy in the book of Job that came up and he instructed Job and his friend and he was the youngest; literally, he told them off the Bible says.
- Full of wisdom. He told them off. He was like, “who do you guys think you are? (Right?), that’s in the book of Job—it’s like one, some few chapters.
- Now that doesn’t mean go tell off your elders, please, no, it was wisdom that was talking. Seated with Him, (where?), heavenly realms in (where?), Christ Jesus.
- As long as you are in Christ Jesus, you are seated in heavenly realms. When you speak, it is not that your voice raises from earth to the heavens, you voice is in the heavens represented.
- This is why the Bible says Jesus Himself groans and prays on your behalf as the Heavenly Spirit is also groaning on your behalf. (We’re together?),
- In order that in the coming ages, He might show us the incomparable riches of His grace; sit here with me.
- Remember what the Bible says to Jesus? “Sit by My side until I’ve made (what?), your enemies your foot stool.” That means in your death and resurrection you started the process that is still being fulfilled.
- If we are in Christ, that means we get to reign with Christ on everything that comes under His feet; this is why we inherit the world—and this is why the Bible actually says that we end up being the judges of Angels.
- We’re going to judge the Angels by the way—the Bible actually tells us that!
- In order that in the coming ages (in other words), as long as you are seated in Christ, all things work together for good to them that love God—to them who are called according to His purpose.

- Because all things are being reconciled; everything you lost, everything that is happening—it is all being brought back in Christ. Everything that is good that belong to you shall return.
- Because as long as you're in Christ and the name of Jesus has already won the victory, you also will receive victory as you rise in Christ.
- In other words, it's already been predetermined that you win, because you in Christ Jesus. (Amen).

You're more than a conqueror. Romans 8:37

You are overcomers: John 1:4-5

And then, you are also heirs of the Lord: Romans 8:16-17 (Amen)

To end, Ephesians 3:8-13.

Remember I told you before that now that you're seated in high places, now that you're seated in heavenly places, I want to show you your power as a human being. (Amen). There's a specific verse I want to show you, it's going to be evidence as I told you last week that there's going to be something to the effect of as you are in Christ Jesus, literally, being made in the image of God and after His likeness, is actually a very deep thing.

- It actually means that you have a relationship with God that not even Angels can dream of having. We are the only existing beings that can actually have a level of intimacy with God on a level that not even Angels know.
- If we were to take those scriptures and intimate them to be the fall of Lucifer as some theologians' debate if it is—cause they say it's just a wicked king, but one of the things the Bible tells us about the angel that got thrown out was that he deceived a third of heaven, (right?), have you ever thought about how was Lucifer able to deceive one-third of heaven.
- That means he showed them things he thought only God could do, now he could do. He was able to master things that proved to the Angels that—wait a minute, you're not the only god—if Yahweh alone we thought could do that—then you're God too so they followed him.
- That's how that happened, (okay?). Now,

Why did the devil do that?

Because he thought he knew everything about God; he thought he knew how God operated. Remember I told you, Angels actually have to learn what they know—cause all Angels are, are Spirit beings that are messengers—that's all an Angel is.

- Angels are just messengers; they all have their functions in the Bible—some of them are messengers of war and Satan was the one that sang; worshipped—that's what his job was.
- So, every Angel has a job that they're commanded to; Satan just thought he was a little bit more.

Ephesians 3:8-13

⁸To me, who am less than the least of all the saints, (the way up in the realm of the spirit is to be humble, to go down), this grace was given, that I should preach among the Gentiles ,(unless the realm of the spirit give you grace to do so, you can't); but I want you to notice what's happening here; if you're reading Paul—if you're following us on Tuesday, you've got to take it word by word, comma by comma.

- I was given the grace that I should preach among the (what?) the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ, (did you get what that means?), that means the information of Christ is not a coding that is available for anyone in the realm of the spirit.
- The idea of Christ and what Jesus came to do—let me give you evidence of Bible verse that proves this; the Bible says that if they knew who they were crucifying, they would have never did so.
- If the devil knew that the one he was crucifying was not only the Son of God but that He was going to rise to defeat him, he would have never killed Jesus!
- Because in Jesus dying, and blood was shed, it changed the codes in the realm of the spirit. So much so, that it became the death of him.
- But he didn't know; but only if you've been initiated, are the unsearchable mysteries of God revealed for you.
- Because the minute you know God's codes, there's a certain level of power that comes on your life. (Are we together?), so, He has to hide this information.
- So, unsearchable riches of Christ and to make all to see what is the fellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the ages has been hidden in God who created all things through Jesus Christ; (when God created the world, He did so with information He withheld and kept in Jesus and said it will not be revealed until the right time comes—so the right time came). All of the sudden you receive Jesus—created all things through Jesus Christ,

¹⁰ to the intent that now the manifold wisdom of God might be made known by the church to the principalities and powers in the heavenly places (did anybody get that?).

- The ministry of Jesus is not revealed to Angels; it's revealed to (who?) the church. It's the church that Angels learn from who God is. (Are we together?).
- I know that whole religion that loves focusing on praying on Angels—they don't have as much power and knowledge as you!
- It is to pray to God to send them! It's not wrong to ask God to send Angels because He says He does, please, they are ministering on assignment; but I want you to know in terms of knowledge of who God is in Christ, is you know more than them.
- That's why you are able to judge them in the day of judgement. I'm going to end on verse 11:

¹¹according to the eternal purpose which He accomplished in Christ Jesus our Lord, ¹²in whom we have boldness and access with confidence through faith in (who?) Him.

- If Angels are learning from you, how much power do you have? (Did you hear me?). The verse where He says, “who is man that you made him a little lower than thus the prophecy of Jesus?” He got put into the flesh.
- But in terms of knowledge of the Kingdom of God, we are the ones that instruct Angels in understanding.
- That’s why He says, “because of this in faith in Jesus,’ he says, (what?), you have boldness, access and confidence as a Christian.”

¹³Therefore I ask that you do not lose heart (if you have this confidence, this boldness, you can’t lose confidence or lost heart) at my tribulations for you, which is (what?) your glory.

- Paul is saying, “the suffering I’m going through, listen, I still have my power; they didn’t take it from me, I’m only suffering so that you guys can understand the mysteries that have been revealed to me.’
- ‘It’s worth everything I go through, he’s saying;” that’s what he was saying there. (Amen.)
- My goal today was for you to understand you’re seated in high places, in heavenly places. Therefore, be confident, be bold, and be strong in the Lord, in the name of Jesus. (Amen?)
